

New Undergraduate Degree Programs and Title Changes to Existing Undergraduate Degree Programs

New Undergraduate Degree Programs

This list includes new programs recently approved by the New York State Education Department (NYSED) and the Syracuse University Board of Trustees. The “First Valid Term” is the semester immediately following approval, which may or may not be the first term in which students will be admitted to the program. Additional information about specific programs may be obtained from the appropriate school, college, or academic department.

This list is typically updated on a monthly basis, as new program approvals are received. Last updated October 16, 2008.
